

COLLEGE PARK COMMUNITY FOOD BANK

We work to reduce hunger in College Park and the surrounding communities by regularly offering healthy food to families and individuals. The College Park Community Food Bank is an all-volunteer organization. In 2022, more than 600 volunteers from across our area helped stock food, direct traffic and hand out food every Saturday, rain or shine.

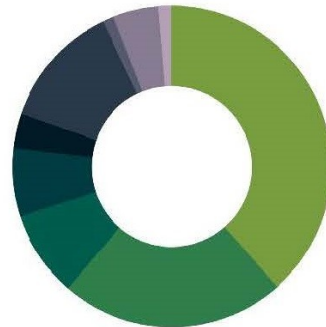

Our Impact

Since the COVID pandemic began, we've been distributing food every week to those in need. In 2022, we sustained a volume approximately equal to the previous year.
